

Dale Carnegie Training®

An Approved Provider of Leadership Training by the Project Management Institute

MAXIMIZE PROJECT MANAGEMENT PERFORMANCE
MASTER LEADERSHIP SKILLS
STRENGTHEN THE BOTTOM LINE

Staying out in front today takes more than just being a good project manager. It requires the skills of a real leader.

Our dynamic action-learning training explores the fundamentals of leadership, the strategies for decision-making, the tools and techniques for communicating persuasively. We also focus on nuts-and-bolts situations that project managers face regularly: how to get buy-in for change initiatives; how to build cooperation and trust in the workplace; how to convert new ideas into superior results.

What difference does the training make? Companies report dramatic improvements—more collaborative decision-making, enhanced team performance and increased results on the bottom line.

Leaders . . . have to be results-focused and opportunity-focused. Good intentions are no longer enough.
